

Our Privacy Policy

While most psychiatric treatment has been offered in the traditional office setting, new developments in our public health status and the availability of secure technology now allows for psychiatric treatment to be conducted in the non-office setting of your choice via secure telemedicine video portal.

For many individuals, the idea of getting treatment in this manner is a welcome change. At Premier Health Psychiatry, we abide by all HIPAA guidelines ensuring your privacy is kept with the highest standards.